FROM:

SUBJECT: Call from Anthony Cave Brown

REMARKS:

"Dear Mr. Casey:

"Thank you for seeing me last week. I enjoyed our meeting very much. One matter arises. You said you thought you knew the mind of Donovan fairly well. If you can find time, it would be a most valuable contribution if you could set down in writing your impressions. It need not be more than a hundred or 200 words, whatever you think, but I have so few good and reliable impressions of the man that yours would certainly find a prominent place in the biography.

"But, please, only if you can spare the time as I understand you are extraordinarily busy.

"With all best wishes for your continuing success.

Yours most sincerely,

Anthony Cave Brown"

Mr. Brown
